

BREAK CHAIN BREAK!

It's time to begin the process to face ourselves and be free of the lies that have been holding us down too long. No more double lives!

Are you a woman in leadership who is tired of being emotionally exhausted? Do you sometimes feel "churched-out" and don't know where to turn to talk about your long-time depression, feelings of low self-worth and painful past memories? Are you a leader who struggles with secret sins or behaviors on Saturday and a "chipper-happy face" on Sunday? Do you feel as if your emotions or actions are out of sync with your spiritual reality? Well, it is time for the process of ALIGNMENT to begin.

Though the journey may be long and even rough, know that there is hope for healing for damaged emotions in a genuine healing community. Help yourself to a FREE 12-15 week Healing for Damaged Emotions (HDE) Group. The Healing for Damaged Emotions Recovery group is a closed group for women in leadership, focused on healing from emotional pain and past memories and/or shame which continue to affect their present life. Email at ncwm.network@gmail.com to reserve your spot or to inquire*. Space is limited to 6-8 participants who will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis. The HDE Workbook must be purchased by the first session.
