

BREAK CHAIN BREAK!

This is YOUR year of spiritual, emotional, physical, relational and financial ALIGNMENT!

Are you a woman in leadership who is tired of being emotionally exhausted? Do you sometimes feel “churched-out” and don’t know where to turn to talk about your long-time depression, feelings of low self-worth and painful past memories? Are you a leader who struggles with secret sins or behaviors on Saturday and a “chipper-happy face” on Sunday? Do you feel as if your emotions are out of sync with your spiritual reality? Well, it is time for the process of ALIGNMENT to begin.

Though the journey may be long and even rough, know that there is hope for healing for damaged emotions in a genuine healing community. Join us at our first 2016 monthly meeting near you in the Triad or Triangle of North Carolina.
